And who's this?

What are the Cybermen doing in a snowy graveyard?

They're coming back...

The Cybermen are going to make a dramatic return and they will be stomping onto our screens this Christmas. The last time we saw them, the massive steel monster burst through from a parallel world and started fighting with the Daleks. But what do they want this time?

No Donna...

We know that the Doctor's now travelling by himself, because Donna had to stay behind on Earth. But we wonder who he's going to meet along the way...

The countdown begins

We can't wait for the Christmas special – but we've got a whole three months to wait, which seems AGES away! But never fear, Doctor Who Adventures will continue to bring you lots of monster scares every week until then!

PAST

Let's travel back in time to a scary scene from the Doctor's past!

STORY:

FIRST SHOWN: 1979
MONSTER:
A JAGAROTH
SHOCK FACTOR: 4/5

WHO?
THE FOURTH DOCTOR (PLAYED BY TOM BAKER)

COMPANION: ROMANA (PLAYED BY LALLA WARD)

1

Paris has a spirit all of its own!

The Doctor and his friend Romana are visiting Paris, in France.

2

Why hasn't she got any eyebrows?

They pop into the Louvre art gallery to see a famous painting called the Mona Lisa, but Romana isn't very impressed!

3

It's a very sophisticated device for a Level Five civilisation!

Later, the Doctor admits that he has stolen an alien gadget shaped like a bracelet from a woman in the gallery!

4

Where's the Count?

Nearby, the same woman is still furious that she lost the bracelet – and is wondering where her husband is.

5

Her husband, the Count, is in the cellar but he's acting very strangely.

6

Carlos!
Carlos?

The Countess knocks on the cellar door, but there's no answer from her husband.

7

Suddenly, the Count puts his hands up to his face...

8

The man grabs his skin and then
- ouch - he pulls his face off!

9

Underneath is a horrible sight - a green creature with one unblinking eye!

10

YUCK!

Argh! He's a yucky monster called Scaroth, and he's the last of the Jagaroth!

IT'S A BIT
LIKE...

Hmm...
I don't see it myself.

The Dalek Sec Hybrid!
We wonder what they would make of each other if they came eye to eye?

What would you like to see next?

WHO

This week's QUESTIONS

Email your questions to dwa@bbc.co.uk with WHO KNOWS! in the subject heading. We'll answer the best ones!

KNOWS!

It's tough being a Time Lord!

Q What did the Doctor mean by 'the burden of a Time Lord'?
Caitlin Bannatyne

A In the last series we got an answer to this, Caitlin. It's to do with why the Doctor feels he can interfere with some events in time and not others. In The Fires of Pompeii he tells Donna he can see which events are 'fixed' in time – and must not be interfered with – and which are in a state of flux. This is his burden – to know what is, what was and what could be, all at the same time. And to know that sometimes, no matter how tragic the situation, time can't be changed. Otherwise the whole universe could be in danger. Imagine that!

Family man

Q In the episode Four Her, the Doctor says that he was a father once. Did his children die in the Time War?
Fintley Jenson

A The Doctor's family is a subject he's very reluctant to talk about. Way back in the 1960s, the Second Doctor told us that they "sleep in my mind" and we never heard about them again until the Seventh Doctor arrived. "I don't know" was all he had to say. But he had a granddaughter, Susan.

In Four Her, the Doctor is having a flashback to his first family. He's looking at a photo of his first granddaughter. Although the Ninth Doctor told Rose in Partners in Crime that his "whole family" died in the Time War, the fate of his relations has never properly been revealed. Given he now regrets about them even before the Time War, it's hard to see if he's another tragedy deep in the Doctor's past. Could it have something to do with the fact that Gallifrey is a planet that's never known...

Eilidh Shakespeare, 10, as the Host of the North

Cameron Powell, makes an excellent Empty Child!

Steve Gray, 5, as the mighty Master!

You will need:

2 When it's dry, cut out the mask with a pair of scissors. Carefully cut out the eyes holes, too.

3 Make a small hole on either side of the mask. Thread some string or elastic through and knot the ends. You may need to ask an adult to help you get the right length.

THE ALICE IN WONDERLAND CIRCUIT

The TARDIS is more than a simple machine, a mere vessel to take its occupants from point A to point B...

It is a box of delights, a sanctuary, the last reminder of the civilisation and technology of the Time Lords...

But that's not to say it never goes wrong...

Script MARTIN DAY

Art JOHN ROSS

Letterer PAUL WYSE

Whoah! Well, that's not good!

What's the matter?

A power spike! The TARDIS has rerouted the energy to keep the essentials safe from harm, but low-importance circuits
are at risk of damage.

One of them could blow any minute...

...now!

The TARDIS is attempting an emergency landing!

Let's see if we can isolate the problem...

Doctor! I feel a bit peculiar!

What's happening to me, Doctor?

VWORP!
VWORP!

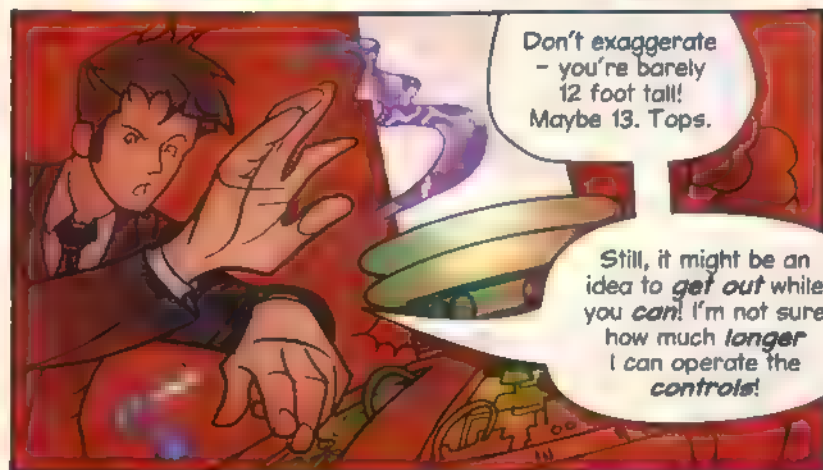

The TARDIS lands...

THUMP!

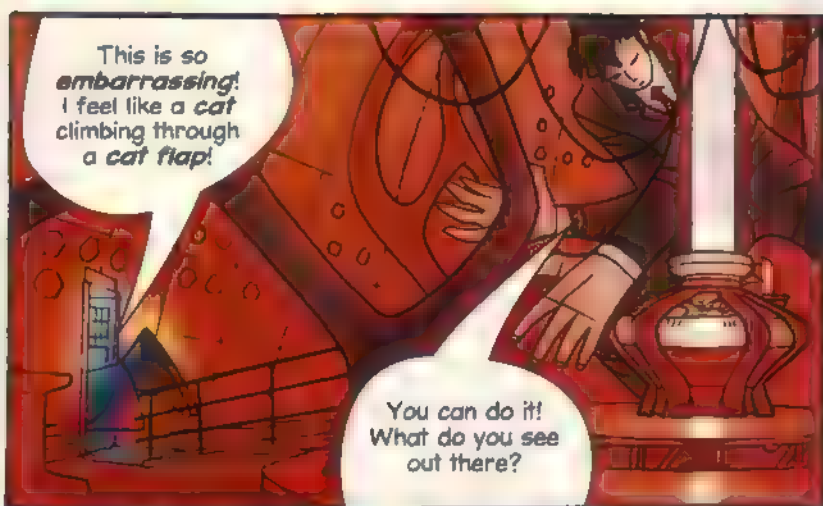

Hold on, Donna! The Dimensional Interface Override - otherwise known as the Alice in Wonderland Circuit - is broken! It helps regulate the interplay between the real world and the dimension within the TARDIS!

I thought you said that the only circuits exposed to the power surge weren't important!

Don't exaggerate - you're barely 12 foot tall! Maybe 13. Tops.

Still, it might be an idea to get out while you can! I'm not sure how much longer I can operate the controls!

This is so embarrassing! I feel like a cat climbing through a cat flap!

You can do it! What do you see out there?

The TARDIS has landed us in the middle of nowhere! There's a mountain, a little shack...

And a tiny little man who doesn't look very happy!

I don't suppose this little man is called Minos, by any chance?

A seven-year vow of silence, ruined!

We didn't mean to disturb you. Bit of an emergency, you see.

I'm not normally this size, for starters!

Seven years...! Ruined!

How did you know it was me, Doctor?

Oh, I heard rumours that you'd become a hermit!

Anyway, I should have guessed that the TARDIS would try to find you - the only man in creation who deals in spare parts for time machines!

Past tense, Doctor.
I've turned my back on technology and that kind of thing!

We're looking for an Alice in Wonderland circuit.
You must have one, tucked away somewhere...

Well, I have kept one or two parts...
You know, for old time's sake...

Look, why don't you find us the circuit...

...And I'll mend your roof for you!

At this size, it'll only take a minute...

I keep thinking I should put the tiles back... But I'm so busy with my meditation!

Later...

Thanks for your help, Minos! Couldn't have done it without you.

My pleasure! But do warn me next time you're coming...

Donna Noble

The most important temp in creation!

Donna Noble met the Doctor when she was transported aboard the TARDIS on her wedding day. She had a hair-raising adventure with the Racnoss, so when the Doctor asked her to join him, Donna said no. She soon regretted this and went looking for her Time Lord friend. Reunited, they adventured through time, until a biological metacrisis with the Doctor's hand created a Duplicate Doctor and made Donna half Time Lord. She saved the universe from the Daleks, but the Doctor's knowledge was burning her up, and he had to wipe her memory to save her life.

K-9's Data Bank

"Alert! Mistress Donna must never know of her time with the Doctor-Master. Silent mode must be engaged in her vicinity!"

Most likely to say...

"Don't go, sweetheart!"

Jackie Tyler

Don't mess with this mum!

Jackie brought up Rose single-handed after her husband was killed. Left behind by her daughter when she ran off in the TARDIS, Jackie spent a whole year fearing that Rose was dead when the Doctor miscalculated their return to Earth. Jackie eventually came to accept Rose's new life and to trust her Time Lord friend. She was trapped with Rose in the parallel world after the Dalek defeat at the Torchwood Tower, but came back to help battle Davros.

K-9's Data Bank

"Mistress Jackie is now settled with the parallel world version of her husband, Pete, and their young humanoid offspring, Tony Tyler."

Most likely to say...
"Oh my God!"

Adam Mitchell

The companion who couldn't!

Alien "expert" and genius Adam joined the Ninth Doctor and Rose after he helped them battle a Dalek on the rampage in the Vault of Henry Van Statten. Adam travelled with them to Satellite Five in the year 200,000, where he sneakily had a computer interface port installed in his head so he could transmit information on the future back to his own time. When the Doctor found out he took Adam home and kicked him out of the TARDIS. He only takes the best...

K-9's Data Bank

Alert! Companion status of Adam Mitchell questioned by this K-9 unit. Advice caution in all dealings. Trustworthiness calculated at 0.79%.

Most likely to say...
"Affirmative, Mistress!"

K-9

A very good dog indeed!

A sophisticated computer in the form of a robot dog, the first K-9 was created by Professor Marius, a scientist from the year 5000. He joined the Fourth Doctor in the TARDIS and later departed along with companion Leela to live on Gallifrey. K-9 Mark II left with another companion, Romana, and Mark III was sent to Earth as a gift to Sarah Jane Smith. He was destroyed when blowing up the Krillitane, but the Doctor built Mark IV as a replacement.

K-9's Data Bank

Tipple of maximum defence and can answer any question asked. I am currently engaged in seeking dangerous black hole activity.

Sarah Jane returns

The Doctor's former companion returns to CBBC on Monday for the next action-packed series of The Sarah Jane Adventures. To celebrate, this week's Doctor Who Adventures has a sneak preview of the first episode – The Last Sontaran. There's also a fact file on schoolgirl turned alien investigator Maria Jackson and a Sontaran mask for readers to wear. Sontar-ha!

We also look ahead to Christmas when an old enemy will stomp back on to our screens. What do the Cybermen want this time? And how will the Doctor cope on his own without Donna by his side?

This week's issue has got two brand-new features. In Blast from the Past we journey back in time to the former Doctors' adventures. This week it's City of Death and the moment the Count turns into the yucky Scaroth. Also, Action Replay puts some of the scariest moments from Doctor Who under the microscope.

The issue comes with a free sonic pen and TARDIS sticky notes.

PLUS:

- Three posters! The Weeping Angels, Luke and Commander Kaagh, and Jenny and the Doctor.
- Fact file: The Hooverville heroes.
- Ultimate Companions: Part three of K-9's guide to team TARDIS.
- Activity: Cut out and wear the Sontaran helmet.
- Comic strip: The Alice in Wonderland Circuit.
- Rel Race: Complete all the puzzles in 300 Dalek Rels to avoid extermination!
- Woven wordsearch: Solve the puzzle and you could win a copy of Doctor Who – Shining Darkness.
- Win: Doctor Who DVDs and a Wii up for grabs!
- Subscription offer: Subscribe and you'll get FREE Doctor Who files on the Doctor and the TARDIS.
- ALL THIS AND LOTS MORE!

Doctor Who Adventures issue 83, priced £2.10, is out now! You'd better hurry. Chances are that Sontaran hasn't come in peace!

Time Agent Newsletter
SARAH JANE RETURNS!

Hello, Time Agent!

Everyone is buzzing here at Doctor Who Adventures HQ – not only are we thrilled to each have our own sonic pen (free with this week's issue), but The Sarah Jane Adventures is back on TV as of this Monday (4.35pm on CBBC)!

But it's not just a reunion of old friends... there's an old enemy on the scene too - a Sontaran! This potato-headed fiend is apparently the only surviving member of his fleet and we have a feeling he hasn't come in peace - what do you reckon?

To celebrate, you'll find a Sontaran helmet in this week's DWA, we've also got a sneak preview of the first episode (but shhh, keep it under your helmet!), along with a fantastic Maria Jackson fact file, so you can remind yourself of some of the awesome adventures she had last series!

We've started our countdown to Christmas... and the Doctor Who Christmas special of course - exactly three months to go! You'll see some pics taken from the episode in your favourite mag. What a scoop! A little warning though - some scenes may involve CYBERMEN!

There are some excellent new features for your viewing pleasure this issue - including Blast from the Past, where we journey back to some scary scenes from the Doctor's earlier regenerations. This week, the Fourth Doctor and his Time Lord companion, Romana, meet a mean man who's hiding a monstrous secret! And Action Replay captures some of the hairiest Who moments - Martha comes face to face with a Judoon cataloguing device this week - eek!

But don't worry, we've also packed in some of your old favourites, too - a fact file on those brilliant Hooverville heroes from Daleks in Manhattan and Evolution of the Daleks, this week's spud monster, your questions tackled in Who Knows, puzzles galore, this week's amazing comic and the next part our ultimate guide to the Doctor's companions. Phew!

We have to go now - we're worried about leaving our sonic pens and sticky notepads unattended!

See you next Thursday!

DID YOU KNOW?

When people first started talking about a Doctor Who spin-off, like The Sarah Jane Adventures, their first idea was a show about the Doctor as a young boy. We wonder what the Doctor would have been like at school? Somehow we think he'd get up to a lot of mischief!
